

Convocation Registration Rates

We are pleased to offer a registration structure designed to support accessibility and fairness across academic, community, and lived experience research contexts.

OCHRe Members

- Concession - $49
(Eg. Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander researchers, community orgs, Elders, volunteers)
- Standard - $79

Non-OCHRe Members

- Concession - $59
- Standard - $89

Choosing the Right Rate

Please register under the category that best reflects your current role.

If you meet the criteria for both categories, you are welcome to select the lowest applicable rate.

For more information regarding eligibility, please scroll down to page 2.

We encourage participation from:

- Students and emerging researchers
- Community organisations and NGOs
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander researchers
- Lived-experience, peer, and consumer researchers
- Academic and institutional researchers

Our aim is to create a conference that is inclusive, collaborative, and respectful of diverse knowledge systems.

Registration Categories – Eligibility

Please select the registration category that best reflects your current role or context. If more than one category applies, choose the lowest applicable rate.

Concession

You are eligible for the concession rate if you:

- Are part of a community, practice-based, or non-university research context, including those working in community organisations, NGOs, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations, advocacy groups, or service providers
- Contribute to research as an independent, peer, lived experience, or consumer researcher, including Elders, volunteers, students, and those involved in participatory or community-led approaches

This category recognises research expertise that is not necessarily institutionally funded.

Standard

You are eligible for this rate if you:

- Are employed by a university, research institute, hospital, or government research body
- Hold an academic, research, or research support role with access to institutional funding
- Do not meet the criteria for the concession rate (i.e. all other participants)

OCHRe Member

To register at the OCHRe Member rate, you must be:

- A current OCHRe member at the time of registration

Membership status may be verified.
