

2026 Convocation Registration - Terms & Conditions

By registering for the Convocation, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Payment & Confirmation

Registration is confirmed only once full payment has been received.

All prices are listed in AUD and include GST (unless otherwise stated).

Refunds & Cancellations

Refund requests must be made in writing to ochre@uq.edu.au.

Cancellations received on or before 14 September 2026 are eligible for a full refund, less any non-refundable processing fees.

Cancellations received after 14 September 2026 will not be eligible for a refund.

Refunds after the cutoff date may be considered in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the organisers.

Registration Category Accuracy

Participants must register under the category that best reflects their current role or context.

OCHRe reserves the right to verify eligibility for selected categories or membership status.

If an incorrect category is selected, participants may be asked to pay the difference or have their registration adjusted.

Membership Rates

The OCHRe Member rate is available only to individuals who are current members at the time of registration.

Membership status may be checked prior to the event.

Program Changes & Event Cancellation

The organisers reserve the right to make changes to the program, speakers, format, or schedule if necessary.

In the event that the Convocation is cancelled, registered participants will receive a full refund of registration fees.

The organisers are not responsible for any additional costs incurred by attendees (such as travel or accommodation).

Code of Conduct

All participants are expected to engage respectfully and contribute to a safe, inclusive, and collaborative environment.

Behaviour that is discriminatory, harassing, or disrespectful may result in removal from the event without refund.

Privacy

Personal information collected during registration will be used solely for event administration and communication and handled in accordance with applicable privacy legislation.

Questions or Support

If you are unsure about registration categories, refunds, or eligibility, please contact ochre@uq.edu.au before registering.
